The Grass Is Greener for Ad Networks Powered by LinkTrust

LEHI, Utah (July 29, 2009) — Nine leading ad networks are coming together at Affiliate Summit East 2009 in New York because they all agree – the grass is greener. All nine networks are powered by LinkTrust, the top software solution for advanced affiliate tracking, ad network management and real-time lead generation services.

“We are excited to have BlinkAds, GetAds, Healthy Payout, MobiKlix, Niche Marketers, RateSpecial, Restoration Media, RevStars and Underground Elephant in our booth with us,” said Bret Grow, president of LinkTrust. “It will be a great opportunity for the people at Affiliate Summit to find out more about everyone in the booth.”

These networks, along with more than 125 others, have found the customer support, real-time reporting and lead management services LinkTrust provides make it possible to generate more revenue than when using other software platforms.

Affiliate Summit attendees will find a representative from each of the networks, as well as LinkTrust representatives at the booth, #1012 – 1018, on the first level of the Exhibit Hall.

Affiliate Summit East is an annual affiliate marketing convention August 9- 11 at the Hilton New York. The sold-out show promises to be one of the best networking and educational opportunities of the year for affiliate marketers.

LinkTrust is an advanced software platform for affiliate tracking, ad network management and lead management. Recognized as an industry leader with outstanding customer support and platform reliability, LinkTrust serves some of the most successful ad networks in the industry.
